GHOST AT THE MANSION

Designed to tickle the funny bone as well as tingle the spine, this interactive show combines stories of the real “spirits” at the 1896 Falcon Rest mansion with a light-hearted ghost convention ... where the audience members are the ghosts!

Anyone no longer living could show up ... from Henry VIII to Lady Godiva to Elvis! The show ends with a special surprise twist and be followed by a “spooktacular” buffet meal and a tour of the mansion called “Tennessee’s Biltmore” by PBS.
